Theravada	Mahayana
Also, called Hinayana= "Lesser Vehicle", considered demeaning	"Greater vehicle"
Sri Lanka, Myanmar (Cambodia), Laos, Vietnam, Thailand	China, Korea, Tibet, Japan
More a philosophy (no one is worshipped, more self-help)	More a religion (gods, saints, prayers, "heavens"
Buddha is not divine	Buddha is worshipped, as are bodhisattvas= "saints"
No bodhisattvas	Worship and prayers to bodhisattvas = almost enlightened, who delay nirvana, because they love and want to aid mankind.
Goal is nirvana	Goal is nirvana
No aryas	Aryas= "Pure land" between enlightenment and earth, where bodhisattvas dwell, to hear prayers and help Buddhists.
Only one Buddhas	Many Buddhas
	Includes Chan/Zen Buddhism Includes Tibetan Buddhism

The four noble truths

- Suffering happens all the time because people always want more or something better than what we have.
- 2. Because we don't have what we want we suffer and feel upset.
- If we accept what we have and stop wanting more we will become happy
- Following the Noble Eightfold Path will help achieve this.

≘.	Buddhism- syncretic (mixed) with
	Taoism (Daoism)
	1. Emphasis
	2. De-emphasis learning or scripture study.
	Taoism (Daoism) = ""- living in harmony with the Tao (Way); adjusting to the rhythm of nature.
	Both Buddhism and Taoism had
•	Tension with the idea of "the;" accepting foreign religions outside of Confucianism and Taoism. At times, Buddhist monastery seizures

Divisions of Buddhism

After the Buddha's death, differing opinions arose concerning the correct teachings and practices of Buddhism. Eventually three main Buddhist traditions formed—Theravada, Mahayana, and Tibetan.

Theravada

- · "Way of the Elders"
- Oldest tradition
- Best way to attain nirvana: be monk, nun, meditate
- Find one path to enlightenment; very much an individual religion

Mahayana

- Teaches people can help each other find enlightenment
- Not necessary to be monk, nun
- Bodhisattvas, enlightened people not yet passed to nirvana, help others and closures.

Tibetan

- Shares many Mahayana teachings
- Also believes special techniques can harness spiritual energy, lead to nirvana in single lifetime

Karma- we are born into debt, which we must pay. Karma is the sum of the good and the bad you have done, which will reappear in your next life.
We don't need forgiveness
There is no one who hears our prayer
We have no self
Life as we know it is "maya," an illusion, part of a cycle of suffering and re-birth.
We need to rid ourselves of all desire
The problem of suffering is desire and attachment
Goal of life = nirvana= release into nothingness= nirvana= moksha

The Medieval Warm Period, 800-1250 AD- the norm was mild and stable weather, good harvests. You see surplus crops providing resources for cathedral building. Paintings of this period show bountiful crops.

Possible causes: increased solar activity, decreased volcanic activity, ocean circulation shifts

The Little Ice Age, 1300-1850

Possible causes: decreased solar activity, increased volcanic activity, ocean circulation shifts

Cycles of intensely cold winters and heavy spring and summer storms → destroy crops → bad harvests → famine and starvation.

Frequent Atlantic storms, periods of droughts and summer heat waves. Zig zag climate shifts.

Effects: Fishing ships chase fish farther south and west
England develops new methods of farming
France's food shortages → French Revolution
Paintings show harsh winters
Cycles of poor harvests
Social scapegoating
Abandonment of Greenland settlements
Baltic Sea froze over

Frozen rivers and canals- Amsterdam, Thames/London

Climate shift after 1850 to warming:

Coincides with forest clearing Industrial Revolution.
